

World Languages Department Rubric for Oral Presentation

Overall Rating	Delivery and Fluency	Pronunciation and Volume	Accuracy: Vocabulary	Accuracy: Structure
Exceeds Expectations	Fluid, smooth speech; no or very few hesitations and/or pauses; clear, enthusiastic. Creates interest. 4	Fully comprehensible; obvious attempts to imitate native speech with appropriate intonation patterns. Good volume, audible to all. 4	Accurate and effective use of studied words. Variety. Exceeds requirements. 4	No significant errors. Control of grammatical structures studied. 4
Meets Expectations	Generally flows. Little hesitation. Maintains interest. 3	Generally comprehensible. Some difficulties with vowels and/or stress. Good volume, audible to all. 3	Generally accurate. Adequate use of required vocabulary. Meets expectations. 3	Generally accurate. Few significant errors in areas studied. 3
Almost There	Hesitant, monotone, may require, prompting. Does not maintain interest. 2	Interferes with comprehensibility; English vowel sounds, stresses wrong syllables. Volume not sufficient to be easily heard 2	Errors in vocabulary usage. Limited. Includes most but not all requirements. 2	Several significant errors in areas studied. Control lacking. 2
Below Expectations	Very hesitant, halting speech. Incomplete, uses English. Reads script. 1	Incomprehensible. Volume inadequate. 1	Error filled. Inadequate, repetitive and/or inaccurate use of vocabulary. 1	Constant patterns of error areas studied. Few correct grammatical structures 1

16= 97

15= 93

14= 90

13= 87

12= 83

11= 80

10= 77

9= 73

8= 70

7= 67

6= 63

5= 60

4= 50

3= 40